Week 2: Thursday

What is Flow Control?

- Flow control is the order in which statements are executed or evaluated in a program.

- Python is synchronous, meaning it executes one statement at a time.

- Reads top -> bottom.